

Open Access Symposium 2016

Pre-Conference Workshop: Library as Publisher
Hosted by the University of the Western Cape Library

4-5 December 2016

The Library as Publisher

The evolving landscape for scholarly communication and publishing implies new roles for librarians. The Library as Publisher pre-conference workshop will introduce the landscape, concepts and tools that librarians need as we take on new roles and responsibilities for recruiting, shaping, presenting, promoting and curating research to support open journals and monographs.

Registration for this workshop is free.

John Willinsky, the founding Director of Public Knowledge Project \(PKP\) and Kevin Stranack, PKP Associate Director for Community Engagement and Learning will be facilitating a two day programme that aims to:

- Provide a history and background to the PKP
- Discuss ethical publishing practices
- Explore OJS 3.0 (Open Journal Systems) and OMP 1.2 (Open Monograph Press) hosting and installation
- Illustrate setting up a journal with OJS and website settings
- Introduce OJS Tools and journal management
- Discuss OA cooperatives and community support

A detailed programme will be available on the Symposium website during the week commencing 21 November.

Pre-Conference Workshop: Library as Publisher

Date	4 - 5 December 2016
Time	08:30 for a 9am start - 16:30
Venue	Da Vinci Room, Hotel Verde , 15 Michigan St, Airport Industria, Cape Town, 7490  To reach the hotel enter the airport precinct, pass the terminals and take the left exit before the BP garage. Phone: 021 380 5500
Further Information	Mark Snyders, mpsnyders@uwc.ac.za

Visitors to Cape Town may catch a bus to the venue departing from UCT Middle Campus at 8am each morning.

Delegates can register by completing the Workshop section of the registration form here.

A place of quality,
a place to grow, from hope to action through knowledge